WRITING

I was planning to give my friend a surprise.

My friend was my classmate. His name is Mervyn. He was funny and kind person. Mervyn liked playing football with me and playing computer games. He liked surprises and always waited for his birthday. He was as old as me, sixteen years old.

I was planning a surprise because I wanted to make him happy. As I said, he played football, so I planned to buy him a new ball. But suddenly, he decided to buy it. So I had to change my plans. Now I planned to buy him a new goalkeeper gloves. I planned to hold it in my closet when it was a day before his birthday. At twelve a.m. I was near his house with my friends. We was too loud, so he wore up and we had to go in quickly. We met him in the living room and presented our gifts. I felt so good because I knew that he will be happy. My mother was happy too.

He was thankful and we all feel good ~~that~~ ^{because} he was happy. From this story I learned that my friends are a good people and I ~~never~~ ^{can} trust ~~them~~ in important business.
